

Website Privacy Policy

The following privacy policy discloses PURE Dental Hygiene Care's practices and policies regarding the gathering and dissemination of your personal information when you visit our website, use our contact form, or sign up for our newsletter.

That information includes:

- Your name, phone number and email address.
- Any other information you voluntarily send to us through our website contact form

This information is collected and used for a number of purposes:

- To provide you with information you have requested, and to keep you informed with respect to ongoing changes to our website.
- To manage and administer our web presence. The nature of the Internet is such that it passively and automatically collects certain information about a user's traffic patterns, which may be linked to their Internet Protocol (IP) addresses. These are unique Internet "addresses" assigned to all Web users by their Internet Service Providers (ISP). Server logs record statistical information, such as visitors' IP addresses, type of operating systems, time and duration of visit, web pages requested, and identify visitors by categories such as domains and browser types. These statistics are only used on an aggregate basis and will not contain any information that could identify you personally.
- To meet legal, regulatory, security and processing requirements (such as in response to a court order), and otherwise as permitted or required by law.

If we intend to use personal information for purposes not identified to you or as set out above, these other purposes will be described to you at the time of collection or before using the information.

We will not use your information for any other purpose without your consent.

Third Parties' Access to Information

PURE Dental Hygiene Care is not in the business of selling customer information to others.

Our customer information is not available for sale to any outside entity. We contract with third parties to fulfill certain functions on our behalf, such as providing marketing assistance, analyzing data, preparing and maintaining site content, processing credit card payments, and providing customer service. These agents have access to customer information only as required in order to help them perform their functions on our behalf, but they are not allowed to use that information for any other purpose and must keep such information confidential.

PURE Dental Hygiene Care will release customer information to the appropriate law enforcement, governmental or other authorities if legally required to do so.

Opt-Out Option Upon request

PURE Dental Hygiene Care will allow any user to "opt out" of further contacts at any time. Also, upon a user's request, PURE Dental Hygiene Care will use commercially reasonable efforts to functionally delete the user and his or her personal information from our database; however, it may be impossible to delete a user's entry without some residual information because of backups and records of deletions.

Generally, by providing us with personal information, we will assume that you consent to our collection, use and disclosure of such information for the purposes identified or described in this privacy policy, if applicable, or as otherwise described at the time of collection.
